Tri-State Telephone Company To Go Out of Business; Bell Regarded as Likely Purchaser

The receivers of the Tri-State Telephone Company this afternoon petitioned court in Uniontown for permission to sell to the highest bidder the company's lines, right of way and all equipment.

While there was nothing to indicate that a buyer was in sight, it was said unofficially the Bell Telephone Company will purchase it.

Among other things the petition sets forth that the company has defaulted on a number of its obligations and that it is felt to be for the best of its creditors and the bond holders to sell.

Last February the company suffered very heavy loss by the worst sleet storm on record in the region. Hundreds of telephones and many miles of poles and lines were wrecked. Subsequently the company was permitted to float a loan of $50,000, after receivers had been named. It has not yet fully covered from the effects of the storm

At Expense of Organization Cornelius Kountz Goes to Attend Last Rites.

VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

After months of search the Red Cross has located in a Chicago morgue the body of the son of an aged Uniontown man who became convinced by the interruption of letters which had come regularly that the son was dead Friday night at the expense of the Red Cross the father started for Chicago to attend the last rites for his boy Clarence a veteran of the World War it being his wish that the body be laid to rest in the city in which he died A representative of the Red Cross accompanied him to Connellsville and saw him aboard a train

Last May Cornelius Kountz who is about 70 years old came to the office of the Red Cross in Uniontown to enlist the aid of the Fayette County Chapter in locating the son Friends had tried to convince him that Clarence had simply become negligent about writing but the father was of the belief that something had happened to him He could not be consoled

Two of the addresses at which Clarence had been were given the Red Cross Letters were sent to chapters in these cities Photographic cuts and advertising were run in papers including those of Chicago Finally in Chicago the Red Cross in a canvass of hotels found that Clarence had been registered at the Elks He had not been there since in March however it was learned It was also found he had been employed by a lumber company At the office of the company it was said he had not been on duty since in March also that he was not feeling well at the time he quit

At this point Clarence seemed to disappear as if swallowed up by the earth Advertisements were kept running in the papers and all summer long the search was continued Early this week a telegram came to the office in Uniontown saying that the body had been located in a morgue Clarence had died in March in the Cook County Hospital of pneumonia There is a rule in Illinois cities where there is political corruption that the boards of health must notify all hotels of deaths of hotel residents or guests that have come to their notice The object being to prevent votes at the elections being cast under the names of persons dead Recently such a list was turned over to the Elks Hotel and in its appeared the name of Clarence Kountz The search for the missing man was recalled and he was readily traced to the hospital and then to the morgue

At the hospital it was said he came voluntarily on March 11 in the first stages of pneumonia and died soon

Christmas Seals Sale in County Gets Good Start

The 17th annual sale of Christmas Seals to fight tuberculosis began Friday

Christmas seals sell for one cent each

Health Bonds are sold for $5 and upwards and are provided for persons who want to help more generously and cannot use many seals

At least 80 per cent of the funds remain in the county and the balance is used in the state and national campaign against the White Plague, which knows no boundaries

Since the Christmas Seal was first sold the death rate from tuberculosis in Pennsylvania has dropped steadily from 118 7 per hundred thousand in 1907 to 85 5 in 1921

The official 1924 Christmas Seal depicts knowledge represented by a woman enlightening the world on the dangers of tuberculosis Resting her hand upon the shield of the double-barred cross emblem of the citizen tuberculosis societies she indicates she is defending the world against tuberculosis

Christmas Seals not only provide a beautiful decoration for letters cards and packages during the holiday season but save lives throughout the year

Christmas Seal with Health Bond campaign being conducted by the Fayette County Tuberculosis Society is under way to a flying start, and already thousands of the little seals that denote the fight against tuberculosis being made in this section are distributed over practically every section of the county At the close of school Wednesday for the Thanksgiving holiday, school children in all sections of the county with the exception of Uniontown and Brownsville, were given the seals to distribute throughout their districts Although it is too early in the campaign to make any report it is understood that the seals and bonds are being sold more rapidly this year than last.

In the county districts the campaign has been organized for several weeks and as a result it is expected that these districts will be quickly canvassed Seals will be put on sale in Uniontown and Brownsville the first of the week they being distributed to the school children either Monday afternoon or Tuesday afternoon at the close of school

Chairmen of the various districts in the county who are devoting their energy to putting the campaign across with success are as follows

Brownsville—Mrs Sharp Cameron (Junior Girls Club are actively in charge with Miss Eleanor Binns as

TAX CUT DEPENDS ON BUSINESS AND MOOD OF CONGRESS

With Respect to Spending Surplus That May Be Available.

ECONOMY IS ESSENTIAL

In Order that Business be Undisturbed and the Imposition of Uncertainties Avoided; Precise Situation Not Known Until March Fourth.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright, 1924 by The Courier

WASHINGTON Nov 29—Returning members of Congress are showing a significant curiosity about the chances of another revision of taxes

And they will find that the answer to their queries cannot be given them by the President or the Secretary of Treasury For tax revision depends on two unknown factors One is the business condition of the country—a better economic situation meaning increased revenues—and the other is the spending proclivity of Congress itself

The Treasury estimated last time that there would be a surplus of about $350 000 000 but it actually came to $505 000 000 which goes to show that the forecasts cannot be exact and that a favorable business situation and rigid economy can change a prediction materially

Assuming that, on the basis of the figures already published there is an indicated surplus of about $70 000 000, this would not be enough to warrant a recommendation for a revision of taxes But the experience of the past has taught that Treasury estimates can be exceeded For this reason some people have gone so far as to say there will be a $350 000 000 surplus notwithstanding the cut that has been made by the new tax law in the expected receipts

Congress to some extent has in its power to bring about a surplus of $250 000 000 Economy in expenditure will do the trick If a business man wanted to bring about a surplus at the end of a year he not only would cut down his expenses of operation but he would look to increased revenues by better business methods

The Government and Congress can't imagine economic conditions except by omitting to disturb business and avoiding the imposition of uncertainties in one form or another But Congress can do the other It can fail to spend large sums and it can even inquire closely into the estimates of

FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Mrs. Bradford Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Phoebus, Virginia.—"Having this opportunity I just cannot refrain from saying a word of praise for the Lydia E. Pinkham medicines. I have used them as occasion required for twenty years, and my three sisters have also used them, and always with the most gratifying results. During the Change of Life I had the usual distressing symptoms—hot flashes, insomnia, etc., — and I am pleased to testify to the wonderful results I obtained from the Vegetable Compound. I heartily recommend it to any woman and I will be pleased to answer any inquiries that might be sent to me through the publication of my testimonial."—Mrs. H. L. BRADFORD, 109 Armstead Street, Phoebus, Virginia.

Consider carefully Mrs. Bradford's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She mentions the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, or if other annoying symptoms appear and you are blue at times, you should give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

"That's Great! First on the Radio—then on the Phonograph!"

—by simply turning a lever

WE just got Montreal — the military band was playing a medley of our American popular airs! They played Jim's favorite from the Music Box Review, so he turned off the radio and is playing the record of it over again.

"I'll get him to get Montreal back for you . . ."

* * *

That's the wonder of the Brunswick Radiola. It's radio and phonograph—in one. You simply turn a lever.

And it gives a new conception of radio music. For with the famous Brunswick Method of Reproduction radio music is as clear and beautiful as Brunswick Records themselves are! And that's the superlative in musical reproduction.

Today come in and hear the Brunswick Radiola. We promise a new musical treat—a real thrill.

Past Performances Count

The business world very seldom accepts a young man at his OWN valuation.

It is, however, a great believer in "Past Performances."

A young man just starting out in life, who can produce a growing bank book—no matter how small—PROVES conclusively that he is master of himself.

This fact carries tremendous weight with men who have the good positions to offer.

Ask any business executive if this thought isn't true.

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY FOR WOMEN OF THE CITY.

As soon as the women of the city learned, during the early days of the World War, of the objects, purposes and needs of the American Red Cross as an agency of mercy among both soldiers and civilians in the war zone, they forgot that previously they had been held apart by associations in separate groups, or by social and other artificial distinctions, and gave a demonstration of harmonious and efficient working together which was truly remarkable, both because of the results accomplished and the fine spirit of cooperation which characterized their activities.

A somewhat similar opportunity now exists in respect to the hospital situation. It is known in a general way that conditions under which the sick and injured are cared for in this vicinity are in urgent need of being remedied, otherwise Connellsville must continue to bear the reproach of being a community which has never displayed the courage, resourcefulness and unselfishness of other cities and towns in providing hospital auxiliary service.

Just how lamentable these needs are only those persons who are brought in close contact with the situation can adequately setforth. How these needs are being met elsewhere, and how the same measures or methods can be applied here, can best be told by those who are familiar with what is being done where the people, and particularly the women have been aroused to a realizing sense of their opportunities and obligations.

To provide the information on these matters which the women of the city as a whole now lack, at least in the more important details, a meeting is to be held in the Kiwanis Club rooms, Carnegie Library, next Monday afternoon. Persons who through abundant experience and actual contact with hospital problems and management, have a full knowledge of the subject will speak at this meeting.

Dr. W. J. Bailey, a member of the board of trustees of the Cottage State Hospital, and who has long served as a member of its surgical staff is exceptionally well qualified to depict the hospital situation in Connellsville, point out in what particulars the existing equipment is sadly deficient and offer suggestions as to how the women of the city can helpfully join in alleviating the worse than unsatisfactory conditions.

Supplementing the information Dr. Bailey will give Mrs. J. C. Work, president of the Woman's Aid Society to the Uniontown Hospital will explain how and in what manner this organization has functioned, the scope and nature of its activities and how it is maintained.

In the presentation of this information the women of Connellsville will find themselves confronted with a situation which should make the same kind of an appeal to them that the presentation of facts about the Red Cross and the opportunities for service did in 1917.

Under such circumstances it is confidently believed the women of Connellsville will not be insensible to the call that will be made upon their sympathies and their always willing desire to have a part in the activities of agencies which are so completely non-sectarian and undenominational that they have no creed save to minister to the necessities of those who suffer bodily hurts or ills.

For these reasons a large attendance of women who shall be representative of every church, organization and group in the city is urged, both to manifest their interest in the very important matter to be considered, and for the purpose of showing that Connellsville has in no way abated in its concern for those things by which the public measures our willingness to render unselfish service.

The next touches will not be of the kind that win in football but they are of the kind that may put fathers down and out who have a long array of names on their Santa Claus lists.

---

The church ushers will have no trouble in finding vacant pews for you tomorrow close enough to the front that you can hear every word of the sermon.

---

Even though the football season is over we still can boost. There is no better place than Connellsville to boost Santa Claus and his big first, second and third teams of givers of good cheer.

---

Woman's gentle aid is needed in almost every human activity, but nowhere more than in the hospitals and nowhere is it more highly appreciated.

---

Senators LaFollette, Brookhart, Ladd and Frazier have due notice that, having violated all the rules of the road they cannot expect to receive renewal of their 1925 Republican license plates.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

The Prince of Wales was born to rule
 and he is young and strong
And he is fond of comradeship, its laughter and its song
And he would like to walk with men
 beneath a starry sky
But oh, he may not choose his friends,
 the same as you and I

The Prince of Wales is fond of golf
 the game is good to play
But guards must follow him about to keep the throng away
On many a care-free golfing journey casts a longing eye
But oh, he may not play a match the same as you and I

The Prince of Wales was born to rule
 some day he'll be a king
But 'round about him everywhere he hears the hammers ring
And he may long for times to do far far-flung goals to try
But, oh he may not go to walk the same as you and I

The Prince of Wales has wealth and power, yet richer far are we
The wives who wait for us at home are those we long to see
And he may wish to wed a maid the royal fates deny
But, oh he may not choose his wife,
 the same as you and I

The Prince of Wales may wear a crown and add to England's fame
But never shall such liberty as ours be his to claim,
And many a night and many a day
 he'll look at us to sigh,
Because he may not live his life the same as you and I

The Paramount

"RIDIN' MAD," with Yakima Canutt in the leading role, is showing today at the Paramount.

Canutt as Steve Carson, winner of all the rodeo championship, has a lot of jealous rivals. In self-defense one day he shoots one. He hides out until the [illegible] dies down.

He [illegible] falls in love with Allene [illegible] scoundrel who is on the eve of betraying her. Steve hears of it, and risking his life, rides to save her. He is trapped and jailed. See the picture for the rest.

A chapter of "Into the Net" is also included.

The Soisson

"PAINTED PEOPLE," featuring Colleen Moore, in the leading role, is the feature picture today at the Soisson.

"Painted People," a picturization of Richard Connell's Collier's Weekly serial, is a pleasing romance of a boy and girl who set out to make themselves worthy of wealthier sweethearts, to find after they had become successful, that their idols had feet of clay and that in reality they have made themselves worthy for each other.

Colleen Moore has the excellent support of Ben Lyon, Anna Q. Nilsson, Mary Carr, Mrs. Alden, Russell Simpson, Sam De Grasse, Charlotte Merriman, June Elvidge, Joseph Striker and "Fuzz" Montana.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Louise Fazenda will be seen in "Galloping Fish."

The Orpheum

"MANHANDLED," with Gloria Swanson, popular Paramount star appearing in one of the best roles of her screen career, is on view today at the Orpheum.

Here's a picture with a climax as sensational as its title, a story of a salesgirl in a big New York department store, who is out for a good time, willing to receive everything but give nothing in return. She falls in with men who misjudge her—misinterpret her idea of a good time, manhandle her and then the girl comes around to her right senses with a bang, realizes what, unwittingly she had almost brought upon herself and goes back to the safe and sane life, happy in the love of an honest-to-goodness sweetheart. He may not have jewels and a car to offer her, but she's seen the rest and knows when she's got the best.

"Feet of Clay" will be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Orpheum

"FEET OF CLAY," a Paramount picture with Rod La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, Ricardo Cortez, Julia Faye, Theodore Kosloff, Robert Edeson and Victor Varconi, in the leading roles, will open on Monday at the Orpheum for a three-day attraction.

In his latest screen offering Cecil B. DeMille of the alluring flavored cinema concoctions has reached in all directions to make "Feet of Clay" strictly 1924.

The heroine played by the new "find," Vera Reynolds, is the new type to whom the public interest has turned, the flapper, grown from parties and petting at seventeen to marriage and responsibilities at twenty-one.

Of course, there is a wonderful DeMille party, a dance floor laid over a pool with interesting connecting bridges. All of this is preceded by a colorful beach sequence, utilizing a myriad striking novelties, and featuring an exciting race between twenty girls on surf boards behind fast speedboats.

Mix in a struggling couple in a Harlem flat, a mid-ocean fight between a swimmer and a shark, and it may readily be seen that De Mille is back again in all his old form.

Timeliness and novelty, according to a careful census of the greatest film successes of the past ten years, seem to be the two most infallible ingredients of a photoplay that will please the theatre-going public. "Feet of Clay" is timely and has novelty to spare. Draw your own conclusions!

The Arcade

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION," the attraction at the Arcade theatre this week, will be shown at this theatre tonight for the last time. The picture, because of its magnificence, still has the power to draw millions of Americans into the theatres to feel again the thrill of its message.

The first half of the spectacle, which was suggested by Thomas Dixon's "The Clansman" exhibits the salient events of the war between the States. The formation of the Confederacy, Lincoln's call for troops, Sherman's march to the sea, the Battle of Petersburg, Lee's surrender to Grant, and the awful tragedy of Lincoln's assassination at Ford's Theatre, April 14, 1865, live before the spectator of the Griffith drama.

In the second half of the South's "second uprising" this time against the carpetbagger regime—is shown in a thrilling story of Reconstruction days.

"If you like this play, please tell your friends, but pray don't tell them how it ends." That is the little bit of rhyme which has appeared on every program of "THE CAT AND THE CANARY," and it will be seen on the Arcade Theatre program next week when the Ella Kramer players present this de luxe thriller to their friends.

The reason for this request, of course is obvious. Still, if you were'nt told by some friend what the ending was, you would never guess it. Careful observation on the part of the producers during the two-year run of "The Cat and the Canary" at the National Theatre, New York, proved that not one in a thousand among the half-million people who saw the play had even the slightest clue as to the identity of the real villain of this hair-raising drama until the very end of the last act.

That this is no reflection upon the mentality of the audiences is evidenced by the fact that even so keen-minded a detective as the late William Pinkerton admitted, after the first of several visits that the solution came as a complete surprise to him.

For this, credit must be awarded to John Willard, the author, who has given to the stage a most ingenious as well as a most exciting play. Someone has likened a visit to "The Cat and the Canary" to a ride on some ingenious "Chute the Chutes," where the patron enjoys delightful terrors, knowing that the ride will end in laughter.

By the way, those who expect to see "The Cat and the Canary" at the Arcade Theatre next week had better not trust to luck in getting their tickets. The advance sale has been phenomenally heavy and there's no doubt that the play will be a complete sell-out for every performance. If you want to make sure of seeing the greatest play of all time, you had better reserve your seats now, or you'll get left.

The State

Adolph Zukor and Jesse Lasky's presentation of Cecil B. De Mille's magnificent motion picture spectacle, "THE TEN COMMANDMENTS" will begin an engagement of three days at the State Theatre, Uniontown, Monday, December 1. The notable picture, which is being shown this season only in regular playhouses, with travelling orchestra and technical staff, comes to Uniontown with the stamp of the enthusiastic approval of New York, London, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and Los Angeles, in which cities it ran simultaneously for many months last season.

"The Ten Commandments" is said to provide a variety of entertainment unusual in the pictorial drama. It combines the gorgeous pageantry of old Egypt with the setting forth of a modern story of ambition, love and intrigue in present-day San Francisco. Jeanie Macpherson, the maker of the scenario, has brilliantly placed the false ideals of modern life in sharp contrast with the fundamental laws received by Moses on the heights of Sinai.

The BLUE CIRCLE

BY Elizabeth Jordan

COPYRIGHT BY THE CENTURY CO.

"He does not show it anywhere else," Verity unkindly observed. "My first impression of him is deepening every hour. He's uncanny. He makes me think of a ghost who hates his job of being a ghost." She shivered a little. "Don't talk about him!" she begged.

Renshaw, his letters signed and sealed, went to the garage in search of Hart. He found him testing the engine of a four-seat roadster. The chauffeur was about the age of James. He had sleek brown hair and the thin-lipped, unsmiling mouth that seemed characteristic of the servants in the Campbell menage. He came forward at once to receive the young man's message, and his thin, unsmiling face held a look of respectful readiness.

"My name is Renshaw," said the newcomer.

"Yes, sir."

Hart saluted with a finger to his bare head. The salute had a semi-military quality.

"I've a lot of letters to go out, and Mr. Campbell suggests that I drive to the station with you when you're ready."

"Very good, sir. I will be at the door in five minutes."

Certainly the Campbell servants were well trained.

* * * * * * * *

Dinner that night was cheerful, almost gay. Madame Hvoeslef had thrown off the air of strain Renshaw had observed in her during their previous meeting and was putting her social gifts through their paces. These gifts were unusual. She was a really charming woman, traveled, sophisticated, tolerant, humorous, and understanding. She seemed to know everybody. It was plain that she had moved in high places. But, though she talked well always and brilliantly at times, she resolutely confined herself to impersonal topics. Her talk was the talk of the visitor to many lands.

When they returned to the living room, Verity sang again, accompanied by the foreigner, whose familiarity with the piano was close and sympathetic. By the fire, David Campbell and his sister listened and dozed; and Renshaw, in his corner near the instrument, felt again the untangling of nerve knots, the deep inner content this girl's voice had given him from the first.

It was Madame Hvoeslef who finally broke up the circle with a vague murmur about letters to be written. Renshaw accompanied her to the door and held it open. She passed through with an inclination of the head, but as she reached the threshold the salute ended in a quick forward jerk of command that motioned him into the hall. He followed her, closing the door of the living room as he left it.

Madame Hvoeslef was walking slowly toward the staircase. He accompanied her in silence. On the lowest step she stopped and looked at him. The look was a peculiar one, intense, doubtful, almost suspicious. Under it he straightened, and his own eyes hardened as they squarely met hers. He objected to being so obviously weighed by this foreigner, and he saw no reason why he should not show it. Her glance changed suddenly. She became again the fascinating woman of the dinner hour.

"Mr. Campbell has told me," she began graciously, in her rather throaty, velvet-soft voice and excellent English, "that you will perhaps be so kind as to do me a service."

Renshaw inclined his head.

"I am here to be of use," he said formally.

"You are so good." Madame Hvoeslef's manner warmed still more. She sent a swift glance up and down the deserted hall. "It is a little journey to the city that I ask," she went on hurriedly and in a very low tone. "You will not mind that, tomorrow morning—to take the train at ten o'clock and to return at five? You can be back, you see, in time for dinner."

"I am entirely at your service. I will get the rest of my instructions after breakfast, I suppose," he observed in a matter-of-fact tone and without lowering his voice. Its clear pitch seemed to alarm her. She looked about apprehensively.

"Yes," she murmured, "after breakfast—in the study. Thank you, then—and good night."

She threw in her most charming smile with that, but Renshaw's unaccustomed lips could not return the smile.

"Good night, Madame," he said with grave courtesy, and returned to the living room.

Among The Churches

FIRST BAPTIST—E. H. Stevens, minister. Bible school, 9:45. Lesson story, "The Good Samaritan." Are we getting to be neighborly? What can take the place in our city life of the old time neighborliness we once knew in a less complex civilization? Morning worship, 11. Sermon, "Thanksgiving Day After Thoughts." B. Y. P. U., 6:45. Evening service, 7:30. Continuation of the study of the Sermon on the Mount. Subject, "Known by Their Fruits." The Live Wire Class will put on their third annual minstrel Monday night at 8:15. The Mission Circle will meet Thursday afternoon in the church parlors at 2:30. Hostesses, Mrs. Joseph Dixon and Mrs. J. C. McClenathan. Subject discussed, "China." Leader, Mrs. A. C. Stickel. Ladies' Aid Society will meet on Friday at the chapel at 7:30. Hostesses, Mrs. Stanton Dull and Mrs. T. G. Witman.

EVANGELICAL — South Connellsville, Clewell E. Miller, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30. Worship at 10:30. E. L. C. E. at 7. Evening worship at 7:45. An evangelistic campaign of about two weeks' duration will begin Sunday evening. The pastor will conduct the services on Monday and Tuesday evening. On Wednesday evening Rev. L. L. Pickett of Wilmore, Ky., will be present. Rev. Pickett will preach each evening from this time on. Rev. Pickett has traveled widely and he is a forceful and interesting speaker.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL—Bennett W. Hutchinson, minister. The new stone church on South Pittsburg street approaches completion. Services now held in Cameron School Building. Dr. Hutchinson preaches at 11 and 7:30. Morning subject, one of series of sermons on the Apostles' Creed, "The Holy Spirit." Who and what? Evening subject, "The Golden Calf in the Twentieth Century." Sunday school at 9:45. Men's classes in the Y. M. C. A. Epworth League meets at 6:30.

CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN—Vine and Newmyer. J. A. Buffenmyer, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45, H. H. Yost, superintendent; morning worship at 11; the subject will be "Self Examination." Preparatory to the Love Feast which will take place at 7 P. M. Prayer meeting on Wednesday at 7:30. Council meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30. Preaching services at Bear Run on Tuesday evening at 7:30. To all of these services you are welcome.

TRINITY LUTHERAN, Fairview avenue. Rev. William H. Hetrick, D. D., pastor—Class in Catechism 9; Sunday school, 10; morning church service, 11, sermon, "Ours for Him." The Every Member Canvass will be held in the afternoon. Members requested to be at home. Canvassers will be commissioned at the altar during the morning service. Luther League, 6:45, evening worship, 7:30. This service will be under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society, presenting a pageant, entitled "The Greatest of These." The thank-offering boxes will be received. Members and friends are urged to see this splendid pageant. All are welcome.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH. George Walker Buckner, pastor—Sunday school at 9:30. The three Christian Endeavor societies (Young People's, Senior and Intermediate), meet at 6:30. Morning worship at 10:40; subject of the morning sermon, "Realizing a Dividend of 100 Per Cent Plus." In this age of instability and uncertainty there are many investments which do not "pan out." Many a man has been caught in the maelstrom of wild finance—"frenzied finance," or "high finance." The misadventures of life may easily engulf in ruin or reduce to economic slavery, with no way out. There is a way and a realm of life which offer both emancipation and large returns. Let us seek after it. Evening service at 7:30; subject of the evening sermon, "Visions Withheld," or "The Secret of Spiritual Insight." Men are known to have gone through many years of life afflicted with defective vision without discovering the fact. There have been instances of partial blindness undetected. There are those who think they can see well, yet who see imperfectly. It is so in the spiritual realm.

TRINITY EPISCOPAL, Corner Fairview avenue and Prospect street, Gilbert Good, vicar—The First Sunday in Advent. Holy communion and sermon, 11; sermon subject, "The Meaning of Advent." Church school, 10; children's sermon subject, "A String of Beads." Everybody welcome. Miss Charlotte Forsythe, superintendent of the Department of Religious Education of the Diocese will visit the school Sunday morning. It is hoped the school will greet her with a 100 per cent attendance.

TRINITY REFORMED. J. H. Dorman, pastor—Sunday school, 9:45; worship, 11 and 7:45; subject of morning sermon, "In Partnership With God"; evening subject, "Christian Citizenship." The Jr. O. U. A. M. will worship with us at the evening service.

METHODIST PROTESTANT—West Apple street, J. H. Lambertson, minister. Class meeting, 9. Sunday school, 9:45. Morning worship, 11; subject, "The Christian Physician." Junior Christian Endeavor 3. Intermediate, 6. Leaders, Thomas Bellell and John Penn. Senior Christian Endeavor, 6:45. Topic, "Stewardship. Our Prayers For Christ." Leader, Ella Haffley. In the evening at 7:30 the pastor's theme will be "The Way of Salvation As Stated in the Bible." Regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:30 o'clock.

SUMMIT METHODIST PROTESTANT—J. H. Lambertson, supply pastor. Sunday school, 2. Senior C. E. prayer meeting at 7:30. Regular Thursday evening prayer and praise services at 7:30. The orchestra from the Connellsville church will render several special numbers at the Sunday school session Sunday afternoon. Every member should be present and enjoy this rare treat.

CONNELLSVILLE GOSPEL MISSION—Regular services are held at this mission on East Crawford near Murphy avenue, every Sunday, Tuesday and Friday at 8 P. M. Bible class meets Thursday at 8 P. M. Sunday school, 2:30. To all of the above mentioned services you are cordially invited to attend. All are welcomed. Miss Sophie Nicklas and Miss Violet Round, workers in charge.

ST. JOHN'S-IN-THE-WILDERNESS EPISCOPAL—Dunbar, Gilbert Good, Vicar. The first Sunday in Advent. Church school, 2. Evening prayer and sermon, 3. Miss Charlotte Forsythe, the superintendent of the Department of Religious Education of the Diocese will visit the church school Sunday afternoon. It is hoped the children will greet her with a 100 per cent attendance. Everybody welcome at all services.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL — Star Junction and Fairview, J. A. Forgie, pastor. Star Junction—Sunday school at 10. Morning worship at 11. Union service at 7:30. Bishop John W. Hamilton of Washington, D. C., will preach. Teacher Training Class Thursday at 7. Mid week service at 7:45. Fairview—Sunday school and public worship at 2:30. Lend God an hour at church Sunday. It will be repaid by big interest.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN — J. L. Proudfit, pastor. Sermons morning and evening by the pastor. Morning sermon at 11 o'clock, "Three Great Emotions." Evening sermon at 7:30, "Justifying One's Self." Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:45.

FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN. Where Morton crosses Pittsburg. Francis J. Scott, D. D., minister—Sunday school at 9:45; morning worship at 11. E. H. Chreiman, a representative of the Near East Relief Committee will present the needs of the work. Mr. Chreiman is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and is a mechanical engineer by profession. He has spent considerable time in Turkey, Syria, Palestine and Greece in active work for the Near East Relief Committee. He will be worth hearing. In the evening at 7:30 the pastor will preach a special sermon to the fathers and sons of Troop No. 8 of the Boy Scouts of America. That all the boys might be able to say with the poet—"Life's a better place it seems when you, dad, fill my dreams, though there's many a man that's good, you are better."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE—Dunn-Paine Building. Church service and Sunday school, 10:45, subject of lesson sermon, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism Denounced." Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at 8 o'clock. The reading room of this church is open week days from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Sealed! to protect Buick performance

Buick's chassis is sealed. Iron and steel housings protect the operation of all driving parts—seal them in to safeguard Buick performance.

Here are the vital points at which Buick engineering provides this extra protection:

1. FAN HUB—Fan bearing totally enclosed—lubricated by its own gear pump.
2. MOTOR—Steel cover keeps water from short-circuiting spark plugs. Steel cover over valve-in-head mechanism keeps dust out, oil in.
3. STARTER-GENERATOR—Delco single unit starter-generator completely housed in single housing. Starting gears housed with flywheel.
4. FLYWHEEL—Completely housed. Starting teeth protected from road damage and accumulation of mud and dirt.
5. CLUTCH—Multiple disc—completely housed.
6. TRANSMISSION—Completely protected. Shifting mechanism holes sealed.
7. UNIVERSAL JOINT—Completely encased in ball joint at front end of torque tube—lubricated automatically from transmission.
8. PROPELLER SHAFT—Buick's third member drive, which is a torque tube, completely encloses the propeller shaft. It is impossible for road dirt to work from the shaft into the universal joint or rear axle.
9. REAR AXLE—Floating type, totally enclosed in rear axle housing.

Basketball Practice to Begin at High School; Meet Uniontown First

Cokers Will Be In Condition By Holiday Time; Ready to Start Off Early.

With the gridiron season now out of the way and a brilliant basketball schedule facing Connellsville High this season, Coach Caskey Settle has called a "rehearsal" of his floor squad for Saturday afternoon. The boys are anxious to work and plan to buckle down at once to get the most there is in the practice line before the Christmas holidays.

Connellsville's championship team of 1923-24 was pretty well "shot" but Captain Raymond O'Donnell remains and he displayed his qualities as a leader on the football field Thanksgiving afternoon, when the Cokers "came to earth" following his entrance and marched 51 yards for a touchdown.

There is a lot of new material available and what may develop is an unknown quantity.

The Coker W. P. I. A. League schedule has been somewhat upset by the elimination of Norwin and Jeannette High Schools for their unfair tactics in football, allowing ineligible players on their championship teams. The two schools were barred for a year by the league executives.

Connellsville was originally scheduled to open the league season with Jeannette. Now the first game will be with Uniontown at the countyseat. The basketball clash will bring the two schools together for the first time in 12 years in athletic events. Uniontown is a new entrant into the W. P. I. A. League and was assigned to Section Three.

Coach Settle expects a big squad out for practice. He is as anxious as the boys to get down to work. The coach will be working with green material but he has his preliminary workouts planned. Mr. Settle spent considerable time during the summer months adding to his floor knowledge, attending a school for that purpose for several weeks.

Dunbar Township Adds Football to Its Trophy Case

Another trophy has been added to the display case at the Dunbar Township High School. The football used in Thursday's game when the Red and Black contingent defeated Connellsville will be on display Monday morning.

The football has ... painted ... and painted in black, lettering on the following inscription: "D. T. H. S. 13, Connellsville 6; 1924."

The case was made by a class in manual training at the school and has been artistically painted by a member of the drawing class. In the display can be found also, the silver loving cup won two successive years in debating.

DUNBAR TOWNSHIP CONSIDERS SEASON A SUCCESSFUL ONE

After opening the schedule on the "wrong foot," the Dunbar Township High School shifted the weight on the correct one and finally closed a successful season. Although the team lost five against four wins, this has little bearing when considering the calibre of teams played. The township lost its first three games but showed better form in trouncing Hurst High. An upset at the hands of Redstone followed but East Huntingdon and North Union fell before the slashing attack of Dunbar's "Four Horsemen," known as Zeka Sweeney, Smith and Rusinko. German Township put a crimp in the team and the semi-final game by giving the locals a lacing and crippling five men. The season was closed with a wonderful victory over Connellsville.

Very little scoring was done in the nine games in which the Dunbarites took part. The visitors scored 88 points against the Red and Black's 63. The Dunbar team made 10 touchdowns, one safety and four extra-points after touchdown. The opponents scored 13 touchdowns, one field goal and five extra-points after touchdown.

Twenty-seven men composed the Dunbar roster during the season and were coached for the first two games by Harry Basom and the remainder of the year by Joseph B. Streamer. B. M. Shearer and O. E. Zuercher were capable aides. The roster was composed of the following: W. Blakely, left end; J. Blakely, right end; H. Prichard, end and halfback; Fornwalt, guard; Tissue, tackle; Gillespie, tackle; Landymore, captain and center. Senor, center; Sweeney, quarter; Browne, quarter; Shallenberger, left half; Zeka, half and full; Rusinko, full; Mehallick, full; Haas, tackle, manager and acting captain; Ball, guard; W. Smith, half; Herron, end; S. Hudkins, tackle, W. Hudkins, guard; H. Smith, guard; Luxner, tackle; Youcick, end; Gauker, tackle; Petrasovich, guard; Work, guard; Berkey, halfback.

The players are looking forward to the annual banquet. It will be given some time before the Christmas holidays. With the pigskin tucked away, the boys are preparing for the cage tilts. Inter-class games will begin within two weeks. The grid mentor, Joseph B. Streamer, will also have charge of the cagers.

The year's record follows:

D. T. H. S. 0; [illegible] 6
D. T. H. S. 0; [illegible] 20
D. T. H. S. [illegible]; [illegible] Brownsville 12
D. T. H. S. 12; Hurst 7.
D. T. H. S. 2; Redstone Township 18.
D. T. H. S. 6; East Huntingdon 0.
D. T. H. S. 27; North Union 0
D. T. H. S. 6; German Twp. 19
D. T. H. S. 13; Connellsville 6

Scores by touchdowns: Smith two, Landymore two, Zeka one, John Blakely one, Sweeney one, Browne one, Haas one, Mehallick one.

Rusinko had three drop kicks, all extra-points after goals. A safety was made against Redstone and Connellsville, offside, added an extra point on Thanksgiving.

Fayette County Floor League Is Nearly Organized

The Fayette County Basketball League was launched last night at a meeting of representatives of a number of teams held in the Gallatin Gardens. A 10 club circuit is assured but the personal has not been definitely decided. Nine teams were represented in person or by proxy last night and three others notified those in charge of the movement, by telephone, to consider them "in" on the proposition.

The clubs are Coal Barons of Uniontown; Keystone Club, McClellandtown; New Salem Five, Casey Club and Unity Fraternity of Connellsville; the Junior city champs of Uniontown in 1922; Republic, Triple Link Club of Point Marion, and Brownsville Independents. In addition the Mystery Five and Eastern Bridge teams of Uniontown have voiced a desire to enter and it is expected the Uniontown Legion will be heard from. The Scottdale Y. M. C. A. team may be an applicant.

A temporary list of officers was nominated. There will be a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary and a treasurer.

The election of officers, limitation of players, posting of forfeits and adoption of rules and regulations will take place at the next meeting to be held in Uniontown.

It is believed that such a league, in a county like Fayette, where the indoor sport is very popular, would prove a big attraction. With a regular schedule to be played out interest among the fans would be thoroughly aroused and rivalry of the old professional league days between Connellsville and Uniontown would again be fanned into a heat.

In the other end of the county enthusiasm is rife over the league prospects. The feeling is just picking up here and another week will see the floor game well under way.

Monarch Team Is Winner Over Bute

The fast-stepping Monarch C. A. C. eleven met and defeated the highly tout[ed] [illegible] team Thursday. The score was 6-0. The game was played at [illegible].

[illegible] and the game see-sawed during the first two quarters. In the latter part of the third quarter the C. A. C. eleven rushed the ball to the four yard line and from there J. Hominsky went over for the only score.

J. Hominsky, J. Gmitter and W. Hominsky played best for the winners and G. Federko played best for the losers.

The C. A. C. eleven plays Leisenring No. 1, at Bart's Field today.

The manager of the C. A. C. eleven wants a game with the Gallagher A. C. at Bart's Field, Monarch. Manager of Gallaghers is asked to write to Manager Joe Gmitter, R. F. D. No. 1, Dunbar, or call Mrs. Matthews Store and ask for Joe Gmitter or John Hominsky.

BROWNSVILLE WOMAN AWARDED $23,000 FOR LOSS OF RIGHT HAND

After deliberating more than 16 hours, a jury in United States District Court in Pittsburg Thursday returned a verdict of $23,500 in favor of George A. Coffman and his wife, Mrs. Vannie Coffman, of South Brownsville, Fayette county, against the National Biscuit Company, for injuries suffered by Mrs. Coffman when she was struck by an automobile owned by the defendant concern. It was the largest award ever made in District Court in a damage suit for personal injuries.

During the trial it was testified that an automobile owned by the defendant concern, while being backed out of a gasoline station on Glass Run road, Hays, collided with a machine in which Mrs. Coffman was riding. Mrs. Coffman's right hand was so badly crushed it had to be amputated and she suffered other injuries. The accident occurred August 17, 1923.

Superintendents Take Three From Capstan Glass

Baseball in Holland

When baseball fans in America hear of the great American sport gaining favor in Holland and being played regularly, most of them wonder if the game is played on ice, as the fan connects ice with about every sport played in Holland. It is not true that the players in the Netherlands play baseball on the ice, but it is interesting and true that the game has been played in this fashion. The first record of a game being played with skates was made in 1861 between two Brook-
